HALA & SIMA JABER

Special Events – Who We Are

Special Events is an Event Planning, decorating and catering company. Hala Jaber, a well-known event planner, reputable for her lavish private events, out of this world themed decoration and Luxury Buffet décor, founded it in 1995. Today, Special Events is known as the best go-to Events House in Lebanon and Special Events' gourmet kitchen is the home of fabulously decorated cakes, desserts and canapés for all your special celebrations.

Special Events is proud of its 800 square meter location in Verdun, which consists of an Event Venue that accommodates more than 100 guests, a showroom/event office showcasing a selection of our creative themed tables for each season, and a private gourmet kitchen to create all the yummy creations

Hala Jaber's expertise is in creating lavish engagement décor, luxury wedding settings, and unique bridal and baby showers as well as fantasy birthday parties.

Her keen attention to detail means that every event is personalized to the client's style, taste, and preferences.

The Special Events Team is generally renowned for its high professionalism, excellent customer service and event delivery strategy. We offer the wow-factor no guest will ever forget!

In 2011, Sima Jaber, her eldest daughter joined the Special Events team to bring new blood and a touch of modernity to the event business. Today, Hala and Sima together are the professional decorators who can consult you on all event-planning services, engagement décor, wedding planning, bridal and baby showers. They love to unravel fairytales with luxury décor while they seek inspiration from all around the globe. Their experience, exposure as well as the extensive research they put into their work makes Special Events the creative and trendy event house that it is Special Events Team are proud to share that more than 70% of their business is based on regular, recurring clients who remain loyal as we cater to their taste and move ahead with the trends. We are proud to be one of Beirut's most beloved event planning companies, and we hope to foster even more long-lasting friendships with our dear clients!
